Dear Parent/Carer

GCSE History Revision Sessions – ‘Additional Support’

In preparation for your daughter’s GCSE History exams next summer, your daughter has been selected to attend lunch time focussed revision sessions on the day and time indicated below.

These revision sessions will help your daughter to practice essential exam skills and review content in sufficient detail to help develop and support her understanding further of the subject. Sessions will be delivered in small groups based on prior attainment to enable all students to gain specific support based on their individual needs.
